Institute of Diplomacy and Foreign Relations

The Institute of Diplomacy and Foreign Relations, or IDFR in short, has been the training arm of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Malaysia since 2004. Established in 1991, the Institute trains Malaysian Diplomats in the areas of diplomacy, international relations, soft skills, and foreign languages. It also trains diplomats and other officials from recipient countries under the Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme as well as the ASEAN Secretariat in areas including diplomatic training, strategic analysis, and crisis management.

The Institute has four flagship programmes: the Diploma in Diplomacy, a six-month intensive course for junior Malaysian Foreign Service Officers in preparation for their first posting to Malaysian Diplomatic Missions; a one-year Master of Social Sciences in Strategy and Diplomacy, a joint programme with Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, which has been in place since 1999; the Pre-Posting Orientation Course for Home-Based Staff and Spouses under Sistem Pentadbiran Kerajaan Malaysia di Luar Negara (SPKM), a mandatory course designed to provide exposure and introduce the participants to the work at Malaysian Diplomatic Missions; and the MTCP programmes, where Malaysia shares its development experiences and expertise with other developing countries in line with the spirit of South-South Cooperation.

To complement classroom training, short discourses comprising lectures, forums, roundtable discussions, and workshops are also organised on a regular basis. Among the discourses are the IDFR Lecture Series, Ambassador Lecture Series, Economic Diplomacy Series, and Cultural Diplomacy Lecture Series. To date, prominent figures who have addressed audience at IDFR include Kofi Annan, Yasser Arafat, Benazir Bhutto, Nelson Mandela, Sultan Hassanal Bolkiah, Tun Dr. Mahathir Mohamad, Imam Feisal Abdul Rauf, Ban Ki-moon, Gareth Evans, Helen Clark, Tan Sri Rais Yatim, Tunku Zain Al-'Abidin Tuanku Muhriz, and His Royal Highness Sultan Dr. Nazrin Muizzuddin Shah ibni Almarhum Sultan Azlan Muhibbuddin Shah Al-Maghfur-Lah, the Sultan of Perak Darul Ridzuan and the Institute's Royal Patron.

Among the Institute's collaborators are the Association of Former Malaysian Ambassadors, Foreign Policy Study Group, Global Diplomatic Forum, International Committee for the Red Cross, MERCY Malaysia, Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, Universiti Teknologi MARA, Universiti Malaysia Sabah, Universiti Utara Malaysia, Universiti Malaya, Universiti Malaysia Sarawak, and the foreign missions in Kuala Lumpur.

Our focus areas are:

- ❖ Political Studies and Economic Diplomacy
- ❖ Leadership, Negotiation, and Public Diplomacy
- ❖ Languages and Cultural Diplomacy
- ❖ Competency Enhancement

IDFR also has a panel of Distinguished Fellows made up of former Malaysian ambassadors who are experienced practitioners and also outstanding academicians in the field of diplomacy and international relations who contribute ideas and continuously support the growth of the Institute.

The Institute's facilities include:

- ❖ Training rooms
- ❖ Meeting rooms
- ❖ Language and computer labs
- ❖ Library
- ❖ Auditorium
- ❖ Multipurpose Hall

Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme: Diplomatic Training Course for International Participants 2021 (Mid-Level Diplomats) (Via Online)

29-31 March 2021 (TBC)

*Subject to changes

Overview

Diplomacy is an ongoing process of states promoting goodwill in safeguarding their policies, national security, and interests. It requires diplomatic agents to engage with various state or non-state entities through communications, dialogues, and negotiations.

In the 21st century, diplomacy is becoming more intricate and multifaceted, and poses new challenges for diplomatic actors. The role of diplomats, therefore, has become more significant and diverse. They must master professional negotiation techniques and develop sharp critical thinking skills at the same time. Hence, it is critical for young diplomats to grasp essential insights into the craft of diplomacy and their effective application as well as keep abreast of current international issues and trends.

The course aims to enhance the participants' diplomatic knowledge and skills in the conduct of diplomatic and foreign relations as well as to improve their professionalism and effectiveness in performing their duties as diplomatic officers at home and abroad.

Course Content

- ❖ Malaysia's Foreign Policy
- ❖ Practices in Diplomacy
- ❖ Multilateral Diplomacy

Centre
for Leadership,
Negotiation and Public
Diplomacy

Current global development and digital advancement present new challenges to the international diplomatic practices and to diplomats around the world. The advancement in digital media has influenced the trends in foreign affairs and modern-day diplomacy. State and non-state actors are increasingly relying on social media to influence support in promoting their interests. These scenarios call for immediate attention towards the need for diplomats to enhance their diplomatic skill sets that include new skills in leadership, negotiation, and public diplomacy.

The Centre for Leadership, Negotiation and Public Diplomacy was established with the aim to provide innovative training modules in the areas of leadership, negotiation, and public diplomacy for Malaysian diplomats and attachés. It also aims to improve and strengthen their competencies in the important skills of leadership, negotiation, and public diplomacy.

For 2021, the Centre will organise courses, seminars, and workshops on varied subjects related to its three core pillars. High-quality training methodology and learning modules will be emphasised to ensure the desired improvement in the participants' skills and knowledge.

The Centre will also work towards initiating collaboration with respected Malaysian and international training Institutes, to develop new practical and training projects in relation to international leadership, negotiation, and public diplomacy.

Leadership Course for Mid-Level Officers

6-8 April 2021

Overview

In today's diplomatic arena, challenges can arise at any time. To be effective, diplomats need to act as leaders in order to respond to these challenges strategically and effectively. Scholars have argued as to whether leaders are made or born. However, both theories have a distinct appreciation that leaders are born or made in their environment by their closest influencers and by the challenges thrust upon them. This course is designed for Malaysia diplomats from relevant Ministries and Agencies through a selection process by IDFR. The course will be specifically designed for Middle Level Diplomats (Grade 48-54).

Course Content

- ❖ Leadership Theories: Identifying and Developing Personal Leadership
- ❖ Introduction to Conceptual Leaders in Foreign Service and Civil Service
- ❖ Leadership Tools and Techniques in Decision Making, Mentoring, and Coaching
- ❖ Leadership and Transformational Change
- ❖ Strategic Leadership
- ❖ Sharing of Experience Session with Eminent Persons in Leadership Roles

Who Should Attend

Officials Grade 48-52 at relevant Ministries/Government Agencies with experience in any international leadership role and whose nature of work involves international relations and diplomacy.

How to Apply

Media Skills Workshop for Mid-Level Officers

13-15 July 2021

Public Diplomacy Workshop for Junior Level Officers

27-29 July 2021

Overview

The globalisation of international relations and the rapid development of information and communication technology have greatly influenced trends of interactions in a modern-day diplomacy. While diplomacy in the past focused mainly on interstate interactions at the bilateral and multilateral levels, diplomacy today increasingly involves engagement with the media, the public, the civil society, and non-governmental organisations at large, in addition to the application of social and electronic media platforms. As the main goal of interaction is to influence the public thinking at the international level and promote one's national interest, effective public diplomacy activities and media skills will help promote and contribute towards a better understanding of Malaysia's foreign policy and trade and economic policies, both regionally and internationally.

Course Content

- ❖ An Overview of Malaysia's Public Diplomacy
- ❖ The Role of Media in Public Diplomacy
- ❖ Media Handling during Crisis Situation
- ❖ Facing the Media, Press Conference, and Mock Media Interviews
- ❖ How to Prepare an Effective Press Release
- ❖ Introduction, Creativity, and Publicity through Social Media
- ❖ Tools and Techniques of Handling Media on Social Media

Who Should Attend

Media Skills Workshop for Mid-Level Officers

- ❖ Mid-Level Officers of Grade 48 to 52 from any Ministries and Government Agencies whose nature of work involves corporate and media communication activities.

Public Diplomacy Workshop for Junior Level Officers

- ❖ Junior and Mid-level Officers of Grade 41 to 44 from any Ministries and Government Agencies whose nature of work involves corporate communication and public diplomacy.

Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP): Media & Public Diplomacy Course for International Participants 2021

16-22 August 2021 (TBC)

*Subject to Changes

Overview

The globalisation of international relations and the rapid development of information and communication technology have greatly influenced trends of interactions in a modern-day diplomacy. Given the new technology of today and the end of scripted diplomacy of yesteryear, the role of diplomats therefore has become more significantly global and far reaching with the dawn of the internet and social media. It is crucial to grasp these new methods in public diplomacy in order to further one's national interest effectively. While diplomacy in the past focused mainly on interstate interactions at the bilateral and multilateral levels, diplomacy today increasingly involves engagement with the media, the public, the civil society, and non-governmental organisations at large, in addition to the application of social and electronic media platforms.

The course aims to enhance the participants' knowledge on the new applications and practices of media and public diplomacy for practicing diplomats. In addition, this course will focus on improving the participants' professionalism and effectiveness in their performance of duties as diplomatic officers at home and abroad.

Course Content

- ❖ An Overview of Malaysia's Foreign Policy
- ❖ The Role of Media in Public Diplomacy and Foreign Relations
- ❖ International Media Relations and Coverage for Public Diplomacy

Centre for Languages and Cultural Diplomacy

Centre for Languages and Cultural Diplomacy

The focus of the Centre is on Languages and Cultural Diplomacy. The Centre focuses on fostering good communication skills and an understanding of cross-cultural elements, geared towards moderation and tolerance.

The Centre offers language courses aimed at enhancing language competencies and skills in English language and two foreign languages: Arabic and German. The Centre plans to offer courses on French, Spanish, Mandarin, Russian, and Conversational Malay Language. The Conversational Malay Language course is offered to foreign diplomats based in Kuala Lumpur, to enable them to understand and appreciate the nuances and usage of the Malay language in formal or social contexts.

As for Cultural Diplomacy, the features and facets of cultural diplomacy are touched on through lecture series and workshops.

The depth and knowledge into the subject is further strengthened by research projects, and through these efforts the Centre aspires to contribute significantly to the intertwining area of culture and diplomacy.

Cultural Diplomacy

Workshop on Cultural Diplomacy 1/2021

1-2 April 2021

Workshop on Cultural Diplomacy 2/2021

5-6 October 2021

Overview

Cultural Diplomacy is defined as one of the many tools of public diplomacy and soft power that includes the “exchange of ideas, information, art, and other aspects of culture among nations and their peoples in order to foster mutual understanding”. Understanding and appreciating intercultural diversity have positive implications to individuals as they ease communication, build confidence and trust, and break barriers. It is imperative to view every person as a unique individual with the understanding that experiences, beliefs, values, and languages affect each interaction with others within and outside the community. There are always differences in every culture and it would be a mistake to assume that a common culture is shared by all members of a racial, linguistic, or religious group.

This workshop is beneficial for officers serving the public sectors as the course provides exposure to participants on intercultural and cross-cultural communication in varieties of environment. It focuses on the practical approach to communication from an intercultural awareness and skills. This enables the participants to assimilate and comprehend the underlying assumptions affecting communication and behaviour. Issues, challenges, and ways in managing intercultural differences are presented through interactive lectures, activities, role plays, and simulation exercises.

Course Content

- ❖ Cultural Diplomacy as the Means of Soft Power
- ❖ The Effects of Culture on Bilateral and Multilateral Relations
- ❖ Conceptual Framework on Culture and Diversity
- ❖ Hofstede’s Dimensions of Culture and Comparative Analysis of Malaysia and other Selected Countries

Cultural Diplomacy Lecture Series 1/2021

19 March 2021

Cultural Diplomacy Lecture Series 2/2021

2 November 2021

Overview

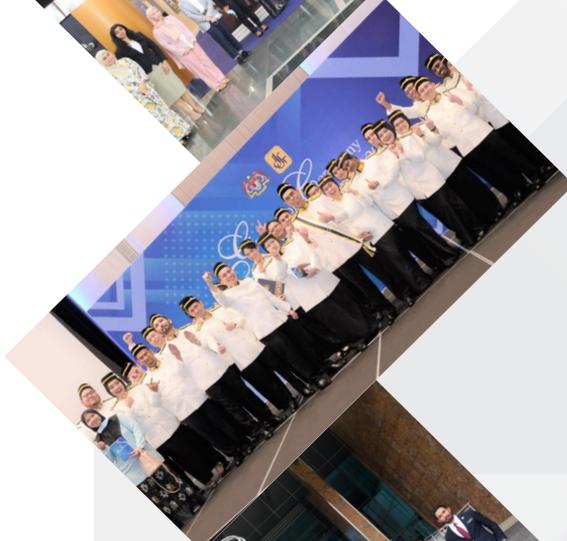

Many successful international negotiations and dealings depend a lot on good understanding of the cultures of the people of the host countries. This programme aims to instil awareness and enhance further understanding on cultural diplomacy and its significance in promoting peace, stability, and prosperity especially at the diplomatic level. The programme also provides a foundation of understanding for the participants as they are expected to deal tactfully with different races and ethnicities in various countries who have different cultures. They should be ready to apply the right means and strategies in order to perform efficiently in countries which could have extremely different or very unique cultures. This programme is ideal for Malaysian government officials, academicians, policy makers, and analysts. Participation is by invitation only.

Competency Enhancement Centre

Competency Enhancement Centre

The Competency Enhancement Centre manages two of IDFR's long-term flagship programmes, namely the Diploma in Diplomacy (DiD) and the IDFR-UKM Master of Social Sciences in Strategy and Diplomacy. The DiD Programme is a preparatory training course for junior officers of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Malaysia prior to their first posting abroad. The latter programme, which was introduced in May 1999, is a collaboration programme between IDFR and Universiti Kebangsaan Malaysia, one of the leading public universities in the country. Through such programmes, the Centre aims to provide opportunities not only to civil service officers but also the private sector professionals as well as fresh graduates from Malaysia and abroad to build on and further enhance their knowledge, skills, and experience in foreign policy, international relations, diplomacy, and diplomatic skills. Ultimately, the Centre envisages developing young talents into highly competent and inquisitive individuals who are attune to the ever shifting geopolitics and able to contribute their newly-acquired knowledge and skillset to their workplace.

2021 Diploma in Diplomacy (DiD) Programme

DiD 1/2021: 2 November 2020 – 9 May 2021

DiD 2/2021: 1 June 2021 – 30 November 2021

Overview

The Diploma in Diplomacy (DiD) Programme is one of IDFR's flagship programme, which is held annually since 1994. It is a six-month prerequisite programme for junior Administrative and Diplomatic Officers (PTD) from the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, who have been in service for a minimum period of three (3) years. The programme provides a solid foundation to upgrade the participants' knowledge, competency, and skills in diplomacy and international relations.

The Diploma in Diplomacy programme is also designed to enhance the participants' leadership and diplomatic acumen through various practical skills, lectures, briefings, simulation and role-play exercises, and excursions. These types of engagements are important to augment the participants' skills and knowledge in preparing them for their roles and responsibilities as efficient Malaysian diplomats abroad.

The six-month programme aims at fortifying the participants' skills and knowledge in the field of diplomacy and international relations. Besides, the programme also creates a learning platform to inculcate the right attitude, mindset as well as values in the participants to enhance their competency and skills in discharging their roles and responsibilities as Malaysian diplomat in a new era.

Course Content

The course consists of five main modules:

- ❖ Diplomacy and International Relations
- ❖ Diplomatic Skills
- ❖ Management Services
- ❖ English Language
- ❖ Foreign Languages and Culture

Who Should Attend

This course is offered to junior and mid-career government officials (Grade M41 to M48) that are nominated by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Malaysia.
