1. INTRODUCTION

The Institute of Diplomacy and Foreign Relations (“IDFR”), an agency of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, is always open to receive applications for placement of students to undergo internship / practical training to fulfil a graduation requirement. These students will undergo internship / practical training according to the duration stipulated by their individual Higher Education Institutions (“IPT”). During this period, they will be exposed to authentic working experiences at IDFR and acclimate themselves to face various issues and challenges in the future.

2. OBJECTIVE

This guideline and explanation relate to the application of students from local and overseas IPT who intend to undergo internship / practical training at IDFR. In addition, this guide is meant to ease the process of selecting students based on criteria and conditions decided by the management of IDFR.

3. IMPLEMENTATION OF PROCEDURE

This guideline contains topics related to the implementation of procedures for internship / practical training for the relevant students as follows:

3.1 COORDINATOR AT IDFR

The Human Resource Management Unit (UPSM), Management Service Division (MSD) will coordinate applications for internship / practical training at IDFR.

3.2 PLACEMENT OF INTERNSHIP/ PRACTICAL TRAINING

- (i) Placement of internship / practical training will be managed by UPSM with the approval of the highest level of management at IDFR involved;

- (ii) Placement of internship / practical training is dependent on the relevant field and function of the Centre / Division involved. However, UPSM can determine placement from time to time based on the needs and vacancy of Centre / Division at IDFR;
- (iii) Available placements for undergoing internship / practical training are dependent on the infrastructural facilities, supervising suitability, and financial capability at IDFR;
- (iv) Based on Circular JPA(L)S.175/4/4-2 Klt.4 (21) dated 6 September 2019, the relevant Centre / Division must prepare a list and table of duties as well as work goals for the student undergoing internship / practical training;
- (v) Students may not be recruited to fill vacant positions, or to perform the duties of permanent officers; and
- (vi) Students are temporary workers fulfilling specific tasks or output. Work that can be carried out include projects, ad hoc or seasonal work.

3.3 CONDITIONS AND CRITERIA FOR SELECTION OF IPT STUDENTS

The selection criteria for students are as follows: -

- (i) Students are Malaysian citizens;
