

Master of Social Science
(Strategy and Diplomacy)
Session 2013/2014

jointly offered by

Institute of Diplomacy and Foreign Relations (IDFR) and
National University of Malaysia (UKM)

Applications are invited from suitably qualified candidates from diverse academic backgrounds to pursue the Master of Social Science (Strategy and Diplomacy), Session 2013/2014, jointly offered by the Institute of Diplomacy and Foreign Relations (IDFR), Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Malaysia and the National University of Malaysia (UKM).

This programme prepares and equips students with the ability to explore the nexus between strategy and diplomacy within the context of the changing global environment. The programme focuses on the understanding of international strategic and security issues, international political economy, diplomacy, inter-state relations, foreign policy, international law, defence policy and regional studies.

Applicants must possess a bachelor's degree with a minimum 3.0 CGPA from a recognised university in which the duration of study is a minimum 3 years, and must demonstrate a capacity to pursue an intensive graduate level course in English. International applicants must prove proficiency in English by submitting TOEFL (minimum 570) or IELTS (minimum 6.0) scores. Applicants who pursued their bachelor's degree at an English medium university are exempted from these requirements.

This 12-month intensive, full-time course begins in September 2013 and will be conducted at the IDFR campus. The degree is earned through a combination of coursework and submission of a research thesis. Interested applicants may visit the IDFR website at <http://www.idfr.gov.my>. For more information, please contact Major Mohd. Ridzuan Hj. Mohd Sharif / Ms. Zuraini Harun at 03-2149 1011 / 1117 or e-mail: ridzuan@idfr.gov.my / zuraini_harun@idfr.gov.my / regional.studies@idfr.gov.my
